Camp Kaitawa Cleanup . . .

Graeme Muir, Ken and Carol, Steve and Di Gillum, Alan White and Brian Hall joined other Camp Kaitawa Trustees last weekend to do some spring cleaning, make minor repairs, clear foliage and plan for the January work week.

← While it stands to reason that the Confidence Course has to be compliant in every regard, does it really have to be millimetre perfect?

Consensus is key and that sometimes requires reflection. I understand that the seat overlooks the lake and the reflection was actually coming off the water. →

← Not sure why Graeme has to feature in every photo but here's proof that some actual work was done (albeit not while Brian was taking the photo).

Which is more important – safety for the climber or for the spectators? I only ask because Ken appears to be keeping a safe distance so as not to be hurt should Graeme fall →
